

Chiropody

This is to certify that

Viktoria Mossberg

has completed an occupational training course in medical footcare on a part-time basis at Axelsons Footcare School in Gothenburg during the period August 23, 2025 – August 23, 2026.

CONTENTS OF THE TRAINING COURSE

Theory

- The anatomy of the foot and lower leg I, II
- Footcare theory: Skin and nails
- Foot deformities
- The importance of the foot in the occurrence of injury
- Diabetes
- General instructions on disease
- ABC healthcare
- Skin diseases
- Hygiene
- Starting your own company
- Product sales

Practical work

- Practical medical footcare
- Instructions on use of instruments
- Instructions on use of preparations
- Treatment of warts
- Nail correction and silicon relief
- Foot and lower leg massage
- Foot physiotherapy: Foot strength, Extension and Mobility, home exercises and treatment
- Taping
- Customer relations

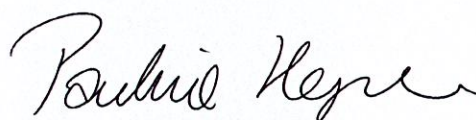

Other theoretical subjects

Footcare for rheumatism, diabetes, psoriasis and treatment of sores.

The training course included 336 hours of teacher/instructor-led time, of which 250 hours consists of practical work at the school, and comprehensive self-study.

Gothenburg August 23, 2026

AXELSONS INSTITUTE

Pauline Hegner
Director of Studies